We are in receipt of your written dispute of the above account and have made a written record of the same in our account notes. To properly investigate this dispute may take more than 30 days, as only 30 days is seldom a sufficient amount of time for such research and investigation. Accordingly, we are ceasing collection efforts and withdrawing any negative reports from the credit reporting agencies. At such time as necessary records have been received and reviewed we will furnish you copies and the results of our investigation.

This communication is from a debt collector attempting to collect a debt. Any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

Sincerely,

Debt Collector
