

SUPERIOR ASSET MANAGEMENT, INC

February 2, 2010

RE: Account # [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I am in receipt of your correspondence dated January 29, 2010(copy enclosed).

A review of our files indicate that this office received a collection account from our Client, T-Mobile on September 30, 2005 for an Account Number ending in [REDACTED] in the amount of $ [REDACTED] for a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] with a social security number ending in [REDACTED]

Upon receipt of your correspondence our office researched the matter and discovered this account was closed in our office and returned to our client on January 20, 2009 per their request. Superior Asset Management submitted a manual deletion to Equifax, TransUnion and Experian to remove any information regarding this account from your credit file. Please understand that it may take 30-90 days for the credit bureaus to update their files.

We strive to provide professional and courteous service and apologize for any undue inconvenience that may have arisen from our servicing the above referenced account.

Sincerely

Superior Asset Management

This communication is from a debt collector and is an attempt to collect a debt.
Any information obtained will be used for that purpose.